MOVING TO STRASBOURG

FOR AN EASY MOVING IN

Moving to Strasbourg?
Remember to request authorisation to reserve a space for your transport vehicle (at least 7 days before the move). If necessary, you can request access in a pedestrian zone (at least 3 days before the move).
More information on the website: www.strasbourg.eu

WHICH DISTRICT?

For more information on the 33 municipalities of the Eurometropole: www.mon.strasbourg.eu/communes

The Petite France district: Very lively, the tourist district of Petite France is known for its cobbled streets, its canals and its well-preserved half-timbered houses such as the Maison des Tanneurs, built in 1572

The Robertsau, Wacken and Orangerie districts located in the north of Strasbourg: These districts offer luxury housing: villas, houses and flats near the largest and most beautiful green spaces in Strasbourg (Orangerie and Pourtales parks).

The Centre and Cathedral districts: Strasbourg's historic district, the Carré d'Or is located at the foot of the Cathedral and remains the most important district in the Alsatian capital.

The Bourse, Esplanade and Krutenau districts: Popular with young executives and students for its lively bars and restaurants as well as its proximity to universities.

The Neudorf and Meinau districts: A dynamic family district located in the south of Strasbourg with easy access to the motorway network. One of the most popular markets in Strasbourg is located here.
